UM DIETITIANS TO RECEIVE PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE

Two University of Montana Home Economics graduates will serve their dietetic internships in hospitals next year.

Barbara Kennedy, Belt, Mont., will be one of a group of fourteen studying at Peter Bent Brigham Hospital in Boston, Mass., and Margaret Ross, Jordon, Mont., will study at Brooke General Hospital, Fort Sam Houston, Tex.

The program consists of practical and academic training. After their internships both Miss Kennedy and Miss Ross will be eligible for membership in the American Dietetic Association, qualifying them to practice in the profession of dietetics.
